

THE MESSENGER

Believing, Behaving, Becoming Like Christ

February 12, 2026

PASTORS CORNER

As we settle into the early weeks of 2026, I want to take a moment to reflect honestly on where we've been—and where God continues to lead us as a church family. The start of this year has not been an easy one.

In a short span of time, we have said goodbye to several long-time, faithful members of our church family. Many others have been navigating ongoing health challenges, hospital stays, and uncertain diagnoses. Add to that the brutal cold and snow, along with unexpected sanctuary repairs, and January asked a lot of us. It required flexibility, patience, and more than a little grace. It was a hard month.

And yet—even in the middle of grief, disruption, and inconvenience—there were also moments of real beauty. Worshiping together in the basement forced us to sit a little closer, listen a little harder, and hear voices we don't always hear. There was an intimacy to that Sunday that reminded me what church is really about. We saw a powerful outpouring of love and support as so many from our church community gathered to care for grieving families. And amid all of this, we relaunched our youth group and God's Gang programs for the semester—clear reminders that God is still at work, still forming faith, still calling the next generation forward.

Our current sermon series, From the Cradle to the Cross, has been calling us back to the heart of our faith—not just what we believe about Jesus, but how closely we follow Him. In seasons like this, it matters more than ever that we come together as one body, united by Christ alone and our shared desire to become more like Him. Our mission statement says it simply and well. We want to grow disciples who:

Believe in Christ. Behave as Christ. Become like Christ.

That kind of faith doesn't happen by accident. It grows when we are anchored in God's Word, when we know our Bibles, and when we follow so closely in the footsteps of Jesus that there's little room for fear, division, discouragement, or distraction to take hold.

As we look ahead, Lent is right around the corner, and with it come several opportunities to walk that path together. On Ash Wednesday, February 18, at 6:00 PM, we'll gather for worship to begin the Lenten season and set our hearts toward Holy Week and Easter. All are welcome, and I hope you'll join us.

The CWF ladies have once again prepared their Blessing Calendars, inviting us to slow down and notice the gifts we often overlook, while supporting the ongoing ministry of CWF. We'll also be assembling Lenten Prayer Packets, encouraging us to pray for one another by name—a simple but powerful reminder that we are connected and held together through prayer. I invite you to participate in one—or all—of these opportunities as we journey through Lent together.

On a personal note, thank you for your continued support, flexibility, and grace—especially over the past few weeks. Ministry is never done alone, and I am deeply grateful for the way this church continues to show up for one another, often quietly and faithfully. I look forward to continuing this journey with you, walking with Jesus from the cradle to the cross, trusting that even in hard seasons, God is still at work among us. Oh—and go Superbowl Champion Seahawks!

With Love, Pastor Isaac
